

TRUCKIN' FOR HAITI FUNDRAISERS

Spoke the Hub has partnered with The Consolation Center-Haiti, a girls school and orphanage in Maillard, Haiti, that provides a home to over 35 girls ages 2-16. All funds raised at these "Truck Stop" events will help ensure that these girls receive an education, health care, food, shelter and clothing. Please help us as we seek to meet the needs of orphaned, abandoned and vulnerable girls in Haiti by coming to one of our "Truck Stops".

LOCAL PRODUCE
in the gardens

SATURDAY JUNE 4, 2011 NOON - MIDNIGHT

Spoke the Hub's first "Local Produce Festival of the Performing Arts" began in 1993 in the Prospect Park Picnic House. Since then, different versions of this local, grass roots cultural "green market" have appeared, like a garden perennial, indoors and outdoors, on the street and in Park Slope's most luscious community green spaces.

This year, Spoke the Hub is delighted to partner with the Brooklyn Conservatory of Music to present an afternoon mini-festival featuring our budding young artists and some of our favorite local adult professionals. We hope you will enjoy this fresh afternoon of music, sun, dance and fun while admiring the daisies and dogwoods at three of our favorite Park Slope gardens!
